

New Lebanon Community Center

Guidelines & Rules

1. Community Center shall be available during designated posted hours for any individual regardless if they are a resident of the Town of New Lebanon or not.
2. Any individual under the age of 16 (TB previously approved under 12 – Rob is requesting this age be increased to 16 – TB can discuss before adopting guidelines & rules) must be accompanied by an adult who will remain at the Community Center during its usage.
3. Any unruly behavior, such as fighting, foul language, horseplaying, destruction of community center property, or ignoring the direction of the Community Center Coordinator, shall result in the individual or individuals being asked to leave and possibly having their community center access suspended or revoked.
4. All guests to the Community Center shall sign in on the designated sign in log so that an accurate count of participants can be tracked.
5. Any individual or group who would like to coordinate an activity during community center hours should reach out to the Community Center Coordinator during center hours or email at SYP@townofnewlebanon.com. Any group or person given permission to utilize space during community center hours must understand that the space is still open for the public to use and not exclusively for their use.
6. Community Center hours may change throughout the year depending on the season & private function use by the LVPA. Updates will be posted on the town website as well as posted on the Community Center door.
